

002 houston

hip. current. cool guide

december 08 | volume 10 | issue 120 | 002MAG.COM | free

Qwerkys
colorful creatures in a curious world

Froggie

Miss Pretty

Mr. Look at Me

Qwerkys™ were born from the evolution of characters existing in award-winning artist, Wendy Wagner's whimsical artwork dating back to her childhood. Longing to share her friends with the world, Wagner began creating them in the form of soft sculptures. Each Qwerkys is handcrafted here in Houston of durable microfiber and colorful felt. Starting at $150, there are three size options: small (readily available) and made-to-order medium and large. Of the 10 Qwerkys colorful creatures, three will be released this holiday season as soft sculptures: "Miss Pretty" (a nail polish wearing, notably vain but shy octopus), "Froggie" (a make-up wearing frog with a broken toe), and "Mr. Look at Me" (a silly "show-off" based on the personality of Wendy's husband/business partner, Kenneth Finch).

Available at The Contemporary Arts Museum Houston (CAMH) gift shop, The Museum of Fine Art Houston (MFAH) gift shop, Laura U, Kuhl-Linscomb and glasstire.com. Please visit the Qwerkys at: qwerkys.com.